Description of Current Services:
Residential treatment programs provide intensive services in a structured environment to individuals with a substance use disorder, who do not have the personal resources or environmental supports necessary to achieve and sustain abstinence from alcohol and/or mood-altering drugs. These intensive services can include, but are not limited to, individual and group therapy, activities of daily living, psychoeducational opportunities, and support services.

Number of Individuals Served:
The number of individuals served in Residential Substance Use Disorder Treatment by Network180 and its contractors was 625 individuals in FY2018 and 518 individuals in FY2019. Beginning April 1, 2020, CMHSP’s throughout the state will be responsible for providing treatment for individuals previously managed by MDOC. With the addition of a new population eligible for this service, we expect continued increase in consumers in need of this service.
